CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE WITH VAWA This ex parte/temporary protective order meets all Full Faith and Credit requirements of the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. 2265 (1994) (VAWA). This court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter; the restrained person has been afforded notice and a timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction. This order is valid and entitled to enforcement in this and all other jurisdictions.

PLEASE REVIEW IMPORTANT NOTICES AND WARNINGS ON THIS PAGE AND ON PAGE FOUR.

PERSON TO BE RESTRAINED (name):

WHAT FORMS YOU SHOULD FILE IN RESPONSE AND WHEN TO FILE THEM

You do not have to pay any fee to file responsive declarations in response to this Order to Show Cause (including a completed Income and Expense Declaration or Financial Statement (Simplified) that will show your finances). The original of the Responsive Declaration must be filed with the court and a copy served on the other party at least ten court days before the hearing date (unless the judge has shortened time; see item 13 above in this Order to Show Cause and Temporary Restraining Order).

NOTICE REGARDING CHILD SUPPORT

If you have children from this relationship, the court is required to order payment of child support based on the income of both parents. The amount of child support may be large and normally continues until the child is 18. You should supply the court with information about your finances. Otherwise the child support order will be made without your input.

NOTICE REGARDING ENFORCEMENT OF THIS ORDER

This order is effective when made. It is enforceable anywhere in California by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). If proof of service on the restrained person has not been received, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the law enforcement agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it.

Violation of this restraining order may be punished as a contempt of court; a misdemeanor, punishable by one year in jail, a $1,000 fine, or both; or a felony. Taking or concealing a child in violation of this order may be a felony and punishable by confinement in state prison, a fine, or both.

This order is enforceable in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories and shall be enforced as if it were an order of that jurisdiction. Violations of this order are subject to state and federal criminal penalties.

If you travel across state or tribal boundaries with the intent to violate the order (including committing a crime of violence causing bodily injury), you may be convicted of a federal offense under VAWA (section 2261(a)(1)). You may also be convicted of a federal offense if you cause the protected person to cross a state or tribal boundary for this purpose (section 2262(a)(2)).

NOTICE REGARDING FIREARMS

Any person subject to a restraining order is prohibited from owning, possessing, purchasing or attempting to purchase, receiving or attempting to receive, or otherwise obtaining a firearm. Such conduct is subject to a $1,000 fine and imprisonment. At the hearing on this matter, the court will order that the person subject to these orders shall relinquish any firearms and not own or possess or purchase or receive or attempt to purchase or receive any firearms during the period of the restraining order. Under federal law, the issuance of a restraining order after hearing will generally prohibit the restrained person from owning, accepting, transporting, or possessing firearms or ammunition. A violation of this prohibition is a separate federal crime.
